Policy of Grievances Redressal Cell

- The Grievance Redressal Cell listen, record and accept oral/written grievances submitted by the students and take necessary steps immediately.
- The committee continuously strives to take the best efforts possible to create a harmonious and conducive atmosphere to everyone in question.
- Students can state their grievances regarding any academic or non-academic matter within the campus.
- Contact number and email ID of the college is provided to the students.
- Students can also directly approach the convener of the appropriate committee or the principal with the written complaint.
- The complaint box/ suggestion box is opened at the end of every month by the Women Cell in presence of the principal.
- Periodic meetings are held to discuss whether the grievances have been settled.
